

M
I
A

Museum of Inuit Art

MIA Museum

For more than 40 years, there has been talk of a museum of Inuit art. . .

Three years in the making, the Museum of Inuit Art is Canada's first public museum devoted exclusively to Inuit art and culture.

Come see more than 300 works of sculpture carved from stone, antler, ivory and bone, as well as innovative pottery, prints, drawings and wall hangings.

MIA Gallery

David Ruben Piqtoukun,
Shaman dancing on the moon
Paulatuk 2006

Profits from the purchases of collector quality contemporary Inuit art at MIA Gallery--obtained through Inuit Art Co-ops--support cultural, educational and acquisitions programs at MIA Museum.

Museum of Inuit Art (MIA) and MIA Gallery
SW corner of Queen's Quay Terminal Bldg.
Harbourfront Centre
207 Queen's Quay West
Toronto, Ontario, CANADA M5J 1A7

MIA Museum: (416) 640-1571
MIA Gallery: (416) 603-7591
WEB: www.MIAgallery.ca
Coming soon: www.MIAMuseum.ca